MEMORANDUM FOR: SSA/Comptroller

FROM: Comptroller

SUBJECT: Overseas Inventory Record for Personal Effects

- REFERENCES:
- (a) Memorandum to Chief, Plans Division from [redacted] Branch, dated 8 May 1957, Same Subject.
 - (b) Memorandum for Chief, PPC Staff from Special Planning Assistant to the Deputy Director (Support) dated 18 April 1957, Same Subject.

1. Referenced memorandums have been received by this Office and submitted herewith are our comments relative to subject.

2. Proposed regulations [redacted] which are now in the process of clearance and will rescind Regulation [redacted] set forth the responsibility of the claimant to furnish an itemized list of property for which a claim is filed. To furnish such listing, the individual should maintain an up-to-date inventory of all personal and household effects; however, to attempt to maintain these inventory listings through official channels for all overseas personnel would not be administratively feasible.

3. Agency policy as stated in the proposed regulations 8 and [redacted] is consistent with that of the military services.

4. In view of the foregoing the Office of the Comptroller does not deem it necessary to act upon the proposal set forth in [redacted] dated 8 January 1957 as quoted in reference (a).

5. Referenced memorandums are returned herewith.
